

A present for a Princess

In 1938 Princess Elizabeth and Princess Margaret were given a very special gift from the children of France., two dolls called France and Marianne. The dolls came with over 360 items of clothing and each had their own car.

Colour in and cut out your doll and clothing. Add the clothing to your doll by folding the tabs which will hold them in place. If you want to stand your doll up, cut out the foot stands and cut along
